IDEAL

My grandson sacrificed himself for a greater good that deceived him. I aim to repay that deception with wrath.

BOND

I tend to fall asleep at times when I should be alert.

FLAW

You come from somewhere else, a place others couldn't begin to understand. Perhaps your home is a unique corner of the Land of the Mists or another world entirely. In any case, you and other travelers have shared experiences. You can find a place to hide, rest, or recuperate among sympathetic trading caravans, itinerant families, or displaced groups, so long as you don't present yourself as a danger. Such groups will hide you from the law or anyone searching for you, though they won't risk their lives for you. Additionally, you can tell whether an object you can see and touch is from your homeland with near perfect accuracy.

Bracer of Flying Daggers. This armband appears to have thin daggers strapped to it. As an action, you can pull up to two magic daggers from the bracer and immediately hurl them, making a ranged attack with each dagger. A dagger vanishes if you don't hurl it right away, and the daggers disappear right after they hit or miss. The bracer never runs out of daggers.

DURATION	Concentration, up to 1 minute
COMPONENTS	S, M (a small amount of makeup applied to the face as this spell is cast)

For the duration, you have advantage on all Charisma checks directed at one creature of your choice that isn't hostile toward you. When the spell ends, the creature realizes that you used magic to influence its mood and becomes hostile toward you. A creature prone to violence might attack you. Another creature might seek retribution in other ways (at the DM's discretion), depending on the nature of your interaction with it.

Message

Transmutation Cantrip

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	120 feet
DURATION	1 round
COMPONENTS	V, S, M (a short piece of copper wire)

You point your finger toward a creature within range and whisper a message. The target (and only the target) hears the message and can reply in a whisper that only you can hear. You can cast this spell through solid objects if you are familiar with the target and know it is beyond the barrier. Magical silence, 1 foot of stone, 1 inch of common metal, a thin sheet of lead, or 3 feet of wood blocks the spell. The spell doesn't have to follow a straight line and can travel freely around corners or through openings.

Thaumaturgy

Transmutation Cantrip

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	30 feet
DURATION	Up to 1 minute
COMPONENTS	V

You manifest a minor wonder, a sign of supernatural power, within range. You create one of the following magical effects within range:

- You cause flames to flicker, brighten, dim, or change color for 1 minute.
- You cause harmless tremors in the ground for 1 minute.
- You create an instantaneous sound that originates from a point of your choice within range, such as a rumble of thunder, the cry of a raven, or ominous whispers.
- You instantaneously cause an unlocked door or window to fly open or slam shut.
- You alter the appearance of your eyes for 1 minute. If you cast this spell multiple times, you can have up to three of its 1-minute effects active at a time, and you can dismiss such an effect as an action.

Player's Handbook

Alarm

1st-level abjuration (ritual)

CASTING TIME	1 minute
RANGE	30 feet
DURATION	8 hours
COMPONENTS	V, S, M (a tiny bell and a piece of fine silver wire)

You set an alarm against unwanted intrusion. Choose a door, a window, or an area within range that is no larger than a 20-foot cube. Until the spell ends, an alarm alerts you whenever a tiny or larger creature touches or enters the warded area. When you cast the spell, you can designate creatures that won't set off the alarm. You also choose whether the alarm is mental or audible.

A mental alarm alerts you with a ping in your mind if you are within 1 mile of the warded area. This ping awakens you if you are sleeping.

An audible alarm produces the sound of a hand bell for 10 seconds within 60 feet.

COMPONENTS	V, S, M (a pinch of soot and salt)

For the duration, you understand the literal meaning of any spoken language that you hear. You also understand any spoken language that you hear. You also understand any written language that you see, but you must be touching the surface of which the words are written. It takes about 1 minute to read one page of text. Duskwalk

The Compendium of Forgotten Secrets

Find Familiar

1st-level conjuration (ritual)

CASTING TIME	1 hour
RANGE	10 feet
DURATION	Instantaneous
COMPONENTS	V, S, M (10 gp worth of charcoal, incense, and herbs that must be consumed by fire in a brass brazier)

You gain the service of a familiar, a spirit that takes an animal form you choose: bat, cat, crab, frog (toad), hawk, lizard, octopus, owl, poisonous snake, fish (quipper), rat, raven, sea horse, spider, or weasel. Appearing in an unoccupied space within range, the familiar has the statistics of the chosen form, though it is a celestial, fey or fiend (your choice) instead of a beast.

Your familiar acts independently of you, but it always obeys your commands. In combat, it rolls its own initiative and acts on its own turn. A familiar can't attack, but it can take other actions as normal.

When the familiar drops to 0 hit points, it disappears, leaving behind no physical form. It reappears after you cast this spell again.

While your familiar is within 100 feet of you, you can communicate with it telepathically. Additionally, as an action, you can see through your familiar's eyes and hear what it hears until the start of your next turn, gaining the benefits of any special senses that the familiar has. During this time, you are deaf and blind with regard to your own senses.

As an action, you can temporarily dismiss your familiar. It disappears into a pocket dimension where it awaits you summons. Alternatively, you can dismiss it forever. As an action while it is temporarily dismissed, you can cause it to reappear in any unoccupied space within 30 feet of you.

You can't have more than one familiar at a time. If you cast this spell while you already have a familiar, you instead cause it to adopt a new form. Choose one of the forms from the above list. Your familiar transforms into the chosen creature.

Finally, when you cast a spell with a range of touch, your familiar can deliver the spell as if it had cast the spell. Your familiar must be within 100 feet of you, and it must use its reaction to deliver the spell when you cast it. If the spell requires an attack roll, you use your attack modifier for the roll.

Wizard

Gear Shield

1st-level abjuration (clockwork)

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	60 feet
DURATION	10 minutes
COMPONENTS	V, S, M (a small handful of gears and sprockets worth 5gp)

You cause a handful of gears to orbit the target's body. These shield the spell's target from incoming attacks, granting a +2 bonus to AC and to Dexterity and Constitution saving throws for the duration, without hindering the subject's movement, vision, or outgoing attacks.

Spellcasting (Factotum)

Deep Magic: Clockwork

Arcane Lock

2nd-level abjuration

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	Touch
DURATION	Until dispelled
COMPONENTS	V, S, M (gold dust worth at least 25 gp, which the spell consumes)

You touch a closed door, window, gate, chest, or other entryway, and it becomes locked for the duration. You and the creatures you designate when you cast this spell can open the object normally. You can also set a password that, when spoken within 5 feet of the object, suppresses this spell for 1 minute. Otherwise, it is impassable until it is broken or the spell is dispelled or suppressed. Casting knock on the object suppresses arcane lock for 10 minutes.

While affected by this spell, the object is more difficult to break or force open; the DC to break it or pick any locks on it increases by 10.

Mental Barrier

2nd-level abjuration

CASTING TIME	1 reaction, which you take when you are forced to make an Intelligence, a Wisdom, or a Charisma saving throw
RANGE	Self
DURATION	1 round

Power Word Kneel

2nd-level enchantment (hieroglyph)

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	60 feet
DURATION	Instantaneous
COMPONENTS	V, S, M (an emerald worth at least 100 gp)

When you shout this power word, creatures within 20 feet of a point you specify are compelled to kneel down facing you. Up to 55 hit points of creatures are affected, beginning with those that have the fewest hit points. A kneeling creature makes a Wisdom saving throw at the end of its turn, ending the effect on itself with a success. A kneeling creature is treated as prone. The effect ends immediately on any creature that takes damage while kneeling.

Arcane Dilettante (Factotum)

Deep Magic: Hieroglyph Magic

Silence

2nd-level illusion (ritual)

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	120 feet
DURATION	Concentration, up to 10 minutes
COMPONENTS	V, S

For the duration, no sound can be created within or pass through a 20-foot-radius sphere centered on a point you choose within range. Any creature or object entirely inside the sphere is immune to thunder damage, and creatures are deafened while entirely inside it. Casting a spell that includes a verbal component is impossible there.

Spellcasting (Factotum)

Player's Handbook

Sleeping Draught

2nd-level enchantment

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	20 feet
DURATION	1 minute
COMPONENTS	V, S, M (a draught of liquid)

You open a draught and a purple mist flows from you to a target creature. Roll 9d8; if the target creature has fewer current hit points than the total, then it falls unconscious. The target remains unconscious until the spell ends, the sleeper takes damage, or someone uses an action to shake or slap the sleeper awake. If the target creature has more hit points than the rolled total, then it becomes drowsy and its speed is halved, it can't take reactions, and it can't make more than one melee or ranged attack during its turn. The target remains drowsy until it takes damage or until the spell ends.

Undead and creatures that are immune to being charmed aren't affected by this spell.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 3rd level or higher, roll an additional 3d8 for each slot level above the 2nd.

Spellcasting (Factotum)

Odyssey of the Dragonlords

Haste

3rd-level transmutation

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	30 feet
DURATION	Concentration, up to 1 minute
COMPONENTS	V, S, M (a shaving of licorice root)

Choose a willing creature that you can see within range. Until the spell ends, the target's speed is doubled, it gains a +2 bonus to AC, it has advantage on Dexterity saving throws, and it gains an additional action on each of its turns. That action can be used only to take the Attack (one weapon attack only), Dash, Disengage, Hide, or Use an Object action. When the spell ends, the target can't move or take actions until after its next turn, as a wave of lethargy sweeps over it.

Spellcasting (Factotum)

Player's Handbook

Summon Fey Spirit

3rd-level conjuration

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	90 feet
DURATION	Concentration, up to 1 hour
COMPONENTS	V, S, M (a gilded flower worth at least 300 gp)

You call forth a spirit from the Feywild. The spirit manifests physically in an unoccupied space that you can see within range. This corporeal form uses the Fey Spirit stat block below. When you cast the spell, choose a mood: Deceitful, Furious, or Joyful. The creature physically resembles a satyr, a dryad, or an elf (your choice) marked by the chosen mood, which also determines one of the traits in its stat block. The creature disappears when it drops to 0 hit points or when the spell ends.

The creature is friendly to you and your companions for the spell's duration. In combat, the creature shares your initiative count, but it takes its turn immediately after yours. It obeys verbal commands that you issue to it (no action required by you). If you don't issue any, it defends itself but otherwise takes no action.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 4th level or higher, the creature assumes the higher level for that casting wherever it uses the spell's level in its stat block.

Arcane Dilettante (Factotum)

UA: Spells and Magic Tattoos

Flickering Fate

4th-level divination (temporal)

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	Touch
DURATION	1 round
COMPONENTS	V, S

You or a creature that you touch can see a few seconds into the future. When the spell is cast, each other creature within 30 feet of the target must make a Wisdom saving throw. Those that fail must declare, in initiative order, what their next action will be. The target of the spell declares his or her action last, after hearing what all other creatures will do. Each creature that declared an action must follow its declaration as closely as possible when its turn comes. For the duration of the spell, the target has advantage on attack rolls, ability checks, and saving throws, and creatures that declared their actions have disadvantage on attack rolls against the target.

Arcane Dilettante (Factotum)

Deep Magic

Your creature type is Humanoid.

When you fail a Dexterity saving throw, you can use your reaction to roll a d4 and add it to the save, potentially turning the failure into a success. You can't use this reaction if you're prone or your speed is 0.

As a bonus action, you can jump a number of feet equal to five times your proficiency bonus, without provoking opportunity attacks. You can use this trait only if your speed is greater than 0. You can use it a number of times equal to your proficiency bonus, and you regain all expended uses when you finish a long rest.

Quick to notice details of your environment, you gain the following benefits:

- Increase your Intelligence or Wisdom score by 1, to a maximum of 20.
- If you can see a creature's mouth while it is speaking a language you understand, you can interpret what it's saying by reading its lips.
- You have a +5 bonus to your passive Wisdom (Perception) and passive Intelligence (Investigation) scores.

Prerequisite: Intelligence or Wisdom 13 or higher

You have learned a number of spells that you can cast as rituals. These spells are written in a ritual book, which you must have in hand while casting one of them.

When you choose this feat, you acquire a ritual book holding two 1st-level spells of your choice. Choose one of the following classes: bard, cleric, druid, sorcerer, warlock, or wizard. You must choose your spells from that class's spell list, and the spells you choose must have the ritual tag. The class you choose also determines your spellcasting ability for these spells: Charisma for bard, sorcerer, or warlock; Wisdom for cleric or druid; or Intelligence for wizard.

If you come across a spell in written form, such as a magical spell scroll or a wizard's spellbook, you might be able to add it to your ritual book. The spell must be on the spell list for the class you chose, the spell's level can be no higher than half your level (rounded up), and it must have the ritual tag. The process of copying the spell into your ritual book takes 2 hours per level of the spell, and costs 50 gp per level. The cost represents material components you expend as you experiment with the spell to master it, as well as the fine inks you need to record it.

You acquire a ritual book holding two 1st-level spells of your choice.

Your spellcasting ability for these spells is intelligence.

When heading into the depths of Undermountain, sometimes the party finds itself short a few members. During key moments in a fight the cleric goes down, when a trap is discovered the rogue is nowhere to be found, or someone just needs to hold the door. When someone needs to fill in, look to the factotum!

FLEXIBLE LEARNER

The factotum has spent a lifetime studying famous adventurers and picking up a few of their skills. A factotum is accomplished in just about every trade a dungeoneering party might need, with enough lore to fake what they haven't learned yet, at least for a brief time. Flexible and full of tricks, the factotum always has a solution.

Even a jack of all trades like the factotum specializes somewhat. While all factotums can swing a sword and cast a spell, some focus their efforts studying the great warriors of yore, while others delve into secrets of forgotten spellcasters.

CHARLATAN AND DILETTANTE

The factotum uses their intelligence and guile to overcome obstacles. They are the consummate dabbler who relies on their ingenuity, but even their tricks run out. Their reliance on secondhand stories and self-taught experience makes it difficult for them to go the distance like other specialists might. Much like a wizard, resting factotums return to their books searching for lore that will help them meet the next day's challenge—or at least find one more gimmick to get out alive.

CREATING A FACTOTUM

When creating your factotum, consider what motivates you. Are you seeking to master all knowledge and be the epitome of humanoid development, or are you a charlatan who knows just enough to fake any adventuring role until you strike it rich?

Also consider where you picked up your diverse collection of skills. Did you learn them from other adventures? Have you studied in a great library? What type of stories and lore most appeal to you?

QUICK BUILD

You can make a factotum quickly by following these suggestions. First, Intelligence should be your highest ability score, followed by Dexterity. Second, choose the charlatan background. Third, choose the fire bolt cantrip.

CLASS FEATURES

As a factotum, you gain the following class features.

HIT POINTS

- Hit Dice:
- 1d8 per factotum level
- Hit Points at 1st Level:
- 8 + your Constitution modifier
- Hit Points at Higher Levels:
- 1d8 (or 5) + your Constitution modifier per factotum level after 1st

PROFICIENCIES

- Armor:
- Light armor, shields
- Weapons:
- Simple weapons
- Tools:
- Thieves' tools
- Saving Throws:

The factotum is a plunderer of knowledge, learning a warrior's martial forms, a wizard's arcane spells, and even a rogue's skill with locks. While you will never be a master of any field, you always remember something useful when the situation calls for it.

At 1st level, you can always recall some useful story, piece of knowledge, or trick to make it through. Your access to this diverse body of knowledge is represented by a number of ingenuity points. Ingenuity points must be spent to activate many of your class features.

When you spend an ingenuity point, it is unavailable until you finish a short or long rest, at the end of which you regain all of your expended ingenuity back. You must spend at least 30 minutes of the rest period studying your books to regain your ingenuity points.

Starting at 1st level, you can fake waving your hands about and choke out a few fancy-sounding words that allow you to approximate summoning up the arcane power of a spell. By spending 1 ingenuity point, you are able to cast one of the spells you know.

Intelligence is your spellcasting ability for your spells. You use your Intelligence whenever a spell refers to your spellcasting ability. In addition, you use your Intelligence modifier when setting the saving throw DC for a spell you cast and when making an attack roll with one.

Spell save DC = 8 + your proficiency bonus + your Intelligence modifier

Spell attack modifier = your proficiency bonus + your Intelligence modifier

Each time you gain this feature, you learn a spell from the wizard spell list of the noted level. When you learn a spell from this feature of 1st level or higher, you also gain one spell slot of the same level of the spell you learned. At 1st level you know one cantrip. You gain this feature again at 3rd, 6th, 9th, 12th, and 15th level.

At 1st level, you can recall some useful bit of knowledge to help you with whatever problem troubles you. You can spend 1 ingenuity point to give yourself a bonus to one roll equal to your Intelligence modifier as a bonus action.

Once within the next 10 minutes, you can add your Intelligence modifier to one ability check, attack roll, or saving throw that you make. You can wait until after you roll before deciding to use your Cunning Inspiration, but you must decide before the DM says whether the roll succeeds or fails. Once your Cunning Inspiration is added to a roll, it is lost. You can have only one Cunning Inspiration at a time.

Your proficiency bonus is doubled for any Thieves' Tools check you make.

At 2nd level you have studied fighting styles enough to exploit weaknesses in common defenses. Once per turn, you can spend 1 ingenuity point to gain an extra 1d6 damage to one creature you hit with a weapon attack. You cannot use this feature if you have disadvantage on the attack roll.

The amount of the extra damage increases by 1d6 at 6th, 10th, 13th, and 17th level.

You carry dozens of holy symbols and supposed blessed relics that you claim bring you the favor of the gods. You can always be religious when you need to be. Starting at 5th level, you can spend 2 ingenuity points to channel divine energy as an action. You can use that energy to heal injuries or turn undead.

When you use this feature, you choose which effect to create. You must finish a short or long rest to use this feature again. Beginning at 9th level, you can use your opportunistic piety twice between rests, and at 14th level, you can use it three times between rests. When you finish a short or long rest, you regain all your expended uses.

Heal. As an action, you lay your holy symbol upon a wounded creature and speak a calm blessing. The creature you touch regains a number of hit points equal to your factotum level + 1d6 per point of your Intelligence modifier.

Turn Undead. As an action, you present your holy symbol and speak a harsh prayer censuring the undead. Each undead within 30 feet that can see or hear you must make a Wisdom saving throw equal to your spell save DC. If the creature fails its saving throw, it is turned for 1 minute or until it takes damage.

A turned creature must spend its turns trying to move as far away from you as it can, and it can't willingly move to a space within 30 feet of you. It also can't take reactions. For its action, it can use only the Dash action or try to escape from an effect that prevents it from moving. If there is nowhere to move, the creature can use the Dodge action.

By 6th level you have learned enough cheap tricks to throw an opponent temporarily off balance, just long enough for you to survive a few more moments. By spending 2 ingenuity points, you may take the Dodge action as a bonus action on your turn.

Starting at 7th level, you can push yourself beyond your normal limits for a moment. By spending 3 ingenuity points on your turn, you can take one additional action.

Once you use this feature, you must finish a short or long rest before you can use it again. Beginning at 13th level, you can use this feature twice between rests.

Starting at 11th level, when an attacker that you can see hits you with an attack, you can use your reaction to spend 3 ingenuity points to halve the attack's damage against you.

Once you use this feature, you must finish a short or long rest before you can use it again. Beginning at 18th level, you can use this feature twice between rests.

By 7th level you have learned to regain some of your magical energy by reviewing your tomes of lore. Once per day when you finish a short rest, you can choose expended spell slots to recover. The spell slots can have a combined level that is equal to or less than one third of your factotum level (rounded up), and none of the slots can be 4th level or higher.
