Saving Face. If you miss with an attack roll or fail an ability check or a saving throw, you can gain a bonus to the roll equal to the number of allies you can see within 30 feet of you (maximum bonus of +5). Once you use this trait, you can't use it again until you finish a short or long rest.

RACIAL TRAITS

Darkvision. You can see in dim light within 60 feet of you as if it were bright light, and in darkness as if it were dim light.

Savage Attacker. Once per turn when you roll damage for a melee weapon attack, you can reroll the weapon's damage dice as use either total.

Rage (Bonus Action—4/Long Rest). Advantage on Strength checks and Strength Saves. A +2 to damage rolls with strength melee weapon attacks. You have resistance to bludgeoning, piercing, and slashing damage.

Unarmored Defense. While you aren't wearing armor, your AC equals 12. You can use a shield and still gain this benefit.

Reckless Attack. When you make your first attack on your turn, you can decide to attack recklessly. Doing so gives you advantage on melee weapon attack rolls using Strength during this turn, but attack rolls against you have advantage until your next turn.

Danger Sense. You have advantage on Dexterity saving throws against effects that you can see, such as traps and spells. To gain this benefit, you can't be blinded, deafened, or incapacitated.

Extra Attack. You can attack twice, instead of once, whenever you take the Attack action on your turn.

Fast Movement. Your speed increases by 10 feet while you aren't wearing heavy armor.

Feral Instinct. You have advantage on initiative rolls. If you are surprised at the beginning of combat and aren't incapacitated, you can act normally on your first turn, but only if you enter your rage before doing anything else on that turn.

Sunlit Fury. While you rage, you can charge the first attack you make each turn with either fire or radiance. The weapon's damage type for the attack becomes fire or radiant, respectively, and it gains a secondary effect. Fire: If you hit, flames arc to up to two secondary targets within reach and, if the roll would hit the second targets, they each take 1d4 + 3. Radiance: Your reach increases by 15 feet, and you disappear and reappear within 5 feet of the target to complete the attack.

Aspect of the Sun. When you take a short rest and spend the entire rest in sunlight, you regain an additional 1d6 hit points if you spend at least one hit die during the rest, and you are provided with enough nourishment to sustain yourself for one day. You can cast control flames and light using Constitution as your spellcasting ability.

Feature: Inheritance

Choose or randomly determine your inheritance from among the possibilities in the table below. Work with your Dungeon Master to come up with details: Why is your inheritance so important, and what is its full story? You might prefer for the DM to invent these details as part of the game, allowing you to learn more about your inheritance as your character does. The Dungeon Master is free to use your inheritance as a story hook, sending you on quests to learn more about its history or true nature, or confronting you with foes who want to claim it for themselves or prevent you from learning what you seek. The DM also determines the properties of your inheritance and how they figure into the item's history and importance. For instance, the object might be a minor magic item, or one that begins with a modest ability and increases in potency with the passage of time. Or, the true nature of your inheritance might not be apparent at first and is revealed only when certain conditions are met. When you begin your adventuring career, you can decide whether to tell your companions about your inheritance right away. Rather than attracting attention to yourself, you might want to keep your inheritance a secret until you learn more about what it means to you and what it can do for you.

Control Flames

Transmutation Cantrip

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	60 feet
DURATION	Instantaneous or 1 hour (see below)
COMPONENTS	S

You choose nonmagical flame that you can see within range and that fits within a 5-foot cube. You affect it in one of the following ways:

- You instantaneously expand the flame 5 feet in one direction, provided that wood or other fuel is present in the new location.
- You instantaneously extinguish the flames within the cube.
- You double or halve the area of bright light and dim light cast by the flame, change its color, or both. The change lasts for 1 hour.
- You cause simple shapes—such as the vague form of a creature, an inanimate object, or a location—to appear within the flames and animate as you like. The shapes last for 1 hour.

If you cast this spell multiple times, you can have up to three non-instantaneous effects created by it active at a time, and you can dismiss such an effect as an action.

Light

Evocation Cantrip

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	Touch
DURATION	1 hour
COMPONENTS	V, M (a firefly or phosphorescent moss)

You touch one object that is no larger than 10 feet in any dimension. Until the spell ends, the object sheds bright light in a 20-foot radius and dim light for an additional 20 feet. The light can be colored as you like. Completely covering the object with something opaque blocks the light. The spell ends if you cast it again or dismiss it as an action.

If you target an object held or worn by a hostile creature, that creature must succeed on a Dexterity saving throw to avoid the spell.

Double-Bladed Scimitar

Weapons

The double-bladed scimitar is the signature weapon of Valenar elves. A haft of fine wood supports a long, curving blade on either end. Forged with techniques honed over centuries, these blades are strong, sharp, and remarkably light.
